Millions of neighbors take part in National Night Out across thousands of communities from all fifty states, U.S. territories, and military bases worldwide on the first Tuesday in August. National Night Out is an annual community-building campaign that promotes police-community partnerships and neighborhood camaraderie to make our neighborhoods safer, more caring places to live. National Night Out enhances the relationship between neighbors and law enforcement while keeping a true sense of community.

Although, the Horsham Police Department has participated in National Night Out for several years this year's event is a part of the year-long Tricentennial Celebration which calls for more fun activities for the community to enjoy!

This event is held in the municipal parking lot where residents will have the opportunity to explore various sections of the Police, Fire and EMS services. Throughout the evening there will be demonstrations from emergency personnel, K-9 police dogs, police motorcycle and much more. The night will also include music, moon bounces, car show and kids activities!

TV's own Walburger's FoodTruck will be selling their famous menu with 10% of sales being donated to the Horsham Community Policing Program, this program provides events and education to Horsham Residents. The Horsham Police will also provide free hotdogs and ice cream. The evening will end with a brief FIREWORKS show over the municipal complex!
